When you have your portrait taken you naturally want a GOOD one; to ensure this you must go to a place where not only the best appliances and artistic skill are to be found, but where also TIME can be taken to study your features, get their most pleasing expression, the most suitable light and graceful pose.

If the photographer lowers his prices too much he cannot take the necessary time to do his work well, but must run his customers through like sheep, trusting to the NUMBER to make his profit.

A sensible person will beware of such and prefer to go where fair prices are charged and every care taken to ensure the work turning out satisfactorily; such is the case at the "Gran Fotografia Platense" whose customers never having been driven away by excessively high prices, do not require to be lured back by catchpenny reductions.

By direct cables via Lisbon.

London, 31st—It has been proved that the cholera has been imported. A few isolated cases are reported in different parts of the Kingdom. Two fatal cases have occurred in London and two in Liverpool.

Toulon, 31st—The Argentine ironclad Admiral Brown had her chimney struck by lightning and her awning set on fire; but the flames were speedily mastered by the ship's pumps.

Prague, 31st — An International Exhibition of building materials has just been opened at Leopol (Bohemia.) Many countries are not represented. Austria, Hungary, Germany, Russia and France are.

London, 31st—Mr. Gladstone, while walking to-day in the park at Hawarden, was knocked down by a mad cow and slightly hurt. Another member of Parliament with him was also knocked down and more seriously hurt than the Premier.

London, 30th—Two cholera patients were taken to hospital to-day. As the disease has made no further progress in the past three days, it is hoped that it will disappear without further consequences.

Brussels, 30th—Cholera is spreading in Antwerp. There have been some cases here, but the authorities deny them, to avoid alarm.

Havre, 30th—In the last 24 hours 57 fresh cases and 19 deaths here. This is a slight decrease, which it is hoped will be greater to-morrow, as the weather is cooler.

Hamburg, 30th—In the last 24 hours, 386 cases and 123 deaths It has been found necessary to employ the military as nurses and to carry the sick. The population is a little more tranquil. Thousands of people have left for the country.

Berlin, 30th—Doctor Koch attributes the cholera in Hamburg to the very bad water, and says that Berlin will escape the epidemic, owing to its excellent sanitary condition. The authorities still deny that there have been cases here.

Rome, 30th—Monsignor Corrigan, Archbishop of New York, will be created Cardinal at the next Consistory.

The Vatican organs protest against the reduction of the stipends of the Italian prelates which Government contemplates.

The Osservatore Cattolico says that, being unable to attack the Pope directly, the Italian Government has now fallen on the Bishops, as its sees the futility of trying to turn them against the Church or induce them to disobey the Pope's orders.

It adds that, in case Italy be involved in revolution or war, Austria and Germany will protect the Pope.

The Liberal papers comment on this invocation to foreign interference, but attach no importance to it.

The Russian Ambassador here has made fresh proposals for a commercial treaty between Italy and Russia. The Government is rather in favour of them, and will shortly give a definite answer.

New York, 30th The heat is terrible, and the death rate is much higher than last year. In Chicago the heat is so great that many horses have fallen dead in the streets.

St. Petersburg, 30th—Orders have been given to the Russian Ambassador in Pekin, to demand satisfaction for the skirmish at Pamir-Alichour, and insist on the Celestial Government, keeping a strict watch on the Turkestan and Afghanistan frontiers.

THE PARAGUAYAN RAILWAY.

Mails received yesterday from Asuncion bring a full account of the debate in Congress on the above railway, and the accusations therein levelled against the Board of Directors in London are so serious that we hope the House of Commons will order a Special Commission like that of Sir Henry James on South American loans, to bring to light the real merits or iniquities of the case. We need hardly remind our readers that the Paraguayan loans, of 1871-72 were very discreditable: the nominal amount was £3,000,000 sterling, but the only money that Paraguay ever received was a sum of £180,000 remitted from London through the house of Bates Stokes and Co. of Buenos Ayres.

The railway in question was begun by Lopez I in 1859, the engineers being Messrs. Burrell, Valpy and Thompson, and completed by Lopez II. in 1863, as far as Paraguari, 40 miles from Asuncion. After the fall of the Lopez dynasty the line was sold in 1877 to Mr. Travasso, a Brazilian army-contractor, for the sum of £17,000 sterling, on the understanding that he would prolong it to Villa Rica, the chief town of the interior, but Mr. Travasso apparently lacked the means to do so. At last an English Co. took over the line, on these terms.

1.—The capital of the Co., as far as the main line was concerned, to be £483,000 sterling, of which the Government subscribed for £210,000, the res to be taken up by the shareholders.

2.—The company to have a guarantee of 6 per cent on the main line and also on the proposed extension to Encarnacion.

The works were carried out by Messrs Cutbill Perry and Co., who put in repair the main line from Asuncion to Paraguari, and then constructed successively the sections to Villa Rica and Caazapá. Meantime the Company had issued debentures for £100 each at the price of £82, until in August 1891, when the works were completed to Caazapá and the contractors were compelled to dismiss their workmen because the Company pretended to pay them in the said debentures, the market value of which was then only £28.

Here was a deadlock. The company had no money, the contractors could not take depreciated debentures in payment, the Government would not pay the guarantee unless the line was carried on to Encarnacion as stipulated. And thus matters have stood for the last 12 months as far as Paraguay is concerned. The actual length of line open is 90 miles from Asuncion, or about 30 miles beyond Villa Rica.

We must now turn to Deputy Irala's speech in Congress, at Asuncion, as reported in the Democracia of that city, 23rd inst.

"This question of the railway is an exceedingly grave one. Before long we may find that the Company will endeavor to confiscate the £210,000 of Government shares, for accumulation of unpaid guarantee. Meantime the line has never had fair play, owing to the incompetence or bad faith of the London Board. There is such an absence of rolling-stock that country people have to send their goods to market in ox-waggons. There are neither workshops nor sheds, the carriages and locomotives being exposed to a tropical sun and to thunderstorms.

"All the skilled mechanics have been dismissed. There is not a single engineer. The work of repairing bridges is confided to ordinary carpenters, and thus we find that it has been necessary to make, unmake and re-construct the Yuquery bridge three times in 12 months. Even the manager is a man who was never before in a railway office.

"The London Directors lay all the blame on the late manager Mr. Gray, who had the temerity to urge them to send out more rolling-stock. By-and-by they will in like manner blame the present manager, Mr. White. Meantime they spare no pains to throw discredit on the railway and on Paraguay, because by this means the ordinary stock runs down to zero.

"It is manifestly their purpose to bankrupt the enterprise, and thus hand over the railway to the Debenture-holders. They brought a suit recently into the London law-courts and obtained an order for Equidation. The next step will be to declare the ordinary stock of no value, as the Debentures, which were issued by Morton Rose and Co., constitute a first mortgage on the railway."

We should be sorry to accept all the above statements as true. But we have unfortunately too much reason, from the past, to suspect that the conduct of the London Directors may be in some respects open to censure.

GOOD MEAT FOR BUENOS AYRES.

On Tuesday, at the invitation of Mr. Edward Casey, a numerous party of friends visited the Nelson Meat Factory in Quilmes, where, as our readers are aware, the meat which Mr. Casey now supplies to the city is slaughtered. Amongst those present were Mr. Bernal, vice-president of the Municipality, Dr. Arata, Mr. Jaime Cibils y Buxareo, Messrs. Agote, Eastman, Casas, Acevedo and several representatives of the press. Mr. Nicolini, president of the recently formed Butchers' Association, was also present.

The Nelson Factory is too well-known to need description here, but it may be interesting to recall the fact that the Factory has appliances for the slaughter of 2,000 animals per day. As the Factory has accidentally suspended work, Mr. Casey has had the excellent idea to utilise all these appliances for the scientific slaughter of animals and supply the city with good wholesome meat. There can be very little doubt that before long the city of Buenos Ayres will be entirely supplied with meat slaughtered in Quilmes in the English fashion. It is well-known that it suits the retail-butchers to receive the meat still hot and bleeding, since, when the meat is in that condition, they can stretch it and render it in appearance bulkier, with a view to hoodwink the unsuspecting purchaser. The lucrative system of cheating the public will soon be suppressed thanks to Mr. Casey's energy and enterprise. The foregoing trick of the butchers explains why they refuse to sell the meat by weight, in spite of municipal ordinances.

As soon as the party of visitors arrived at the Factory, 50 half-bred cows were brought up for slaughter. This operation was quickly and scientifically performed, and the meat properly bled and cut up. It was admitted by all present that no meat could be finer and fatter.

From to-day different qualities of meat will be slaughtered and sold to the butchers at the following rates :—

Special half-bred meat ..	0.20
Fat " " ..	0.18
Native fat meat.....	0.16
" good meat.....	0.14

The carcases will be placed in the stalls free of cost of freight for the butcher.

There are at present a large number of animals in the spacious "potreros" surrounding the factory. In these enclosures the animals are allowed to rest several days before being slaughtered.

The new system of allowing the animals to rest and slaughtering them will revolutionise the Corrales method, which has so long held sway, much to the detriment of public health. Mr. Nicolini, whom we have already mentioned and whose opinion is of great weight, thinks that within a fortnight at least 50 per cent of the population will consume Quilmes meat, for its superiority from every point of view over the Corrales meat cannot be de denied.

NEW RIVER PLATE LOANS.

Only a few months have elapsed since Uruguay compounded with her creditors in London, the latter consenting to a reduction of 40 per cent in the public debt. It was natural to suppose that several years would elapse before the Montevidean Government would again appear in the market for a new loan. Nevertheless a bill was hastily passed by the Legislature last week, which empowered President Herrera to conclude a loan in Paris on bases already submitted by some Jewish bankers in that city; namely a five-per cent loan for £1,000,000 sterling, to be issued at 85.

Some of the Montevidean papers treat the business as a joke of President Herrera, an effort on his part to revive "confidence"; but the "confidence trick" has been so often played on both sides of the Equator that we hardly think the public is likely to be fooled either by the Government or the Legislature.

The Jewish bankers in question may be mythical, and in such case we shall probably hear no more about the proposed loan. This is the prevailing opinion, as we learn in private letters from Montevideo. Nor is it easy to imagine that a country which made a public act of bank ruptcy only six months ago could find a group of money-lending philanthropists in Paris anxious to advance a sum of one million sterling at very moderate interest. We are, therefore, disposed to throw cold water on this latest attempt of President Herrera to create "confidence."

But, if by any chance there be some real foundation for the loan the position of Uruguayan finances is likely to become very complicated. The London bondholders at present hold a mortgage on the Customs revenue up to 45 per cent, and of late it has been seriously questioned whether that percentage will suffice to pay 3½ per cent interest on the debt, which amounts to £21,000,000 sterling.

Meantime the new loan is to be guaranteed by "flying stamps," receivable in payment of Customs dues, and this establishes a second mortgage on the Custom-House.

The London mortgage will, of course, claim priority, and the "flying stamps" must be deducted from whatever remainder of revenue there will be after the payment of 45 per cent already alluded to. In this manner the available recources of the Government will be further reduced. If it were possible to create new taxes the case would not be so difficult, but it is notorious that the taxes in Montevideo are now oppressive beyond all precedent, and that many families are coming up to Buenos Ayres on that account.

When the reduction of debt was effected, last March, with the London bondholders it was stipulated that Uruguay was not to make any attempt at further borrowing in London for three years. This, nevertheless, does not prohibit fresh loans in Paris, Hamburg, Frankfort, Berlin or elsewhere.

It remains to be seen how long this process of borrowing may continue, or how a country, like Uruguay, already heavily saddled with debt, can hope to improve its position by fresh loans. What we say of Uruguay is also applicable to Argentina. If we are ever to emerge from the troubles that environ us it is only by a reduction of debt and a firm resolve to contract no fresh obligations until the close of the 19th century.

Butchers have asked Mr. Casey to kill different qualities of meat, and as we have already stated, this will be done from to-day. Already the demand is considerable. At Godoy Station, as the party was returning to the city, Mr. Casey received the following significant telegram from the Manager of the Colon Market:—

"Let me know how much meat is coming. We are being driven mad with the demands here."

LONDON IMPRESSIONS.

(By our German Correspondent.)

John Bright was right, you cannot see enough of London. And the little that the foreigner manages to grasp in eye and brain requires a lengthy mental preparation, and no London monument of the past requires more preliminary study than the Tower. One of the forty warders recognized my accent as I entered the portals: 'Why, you are half an Englishman, being Hannoverian'. Twenty-five years' army experience had not been thrown away on this man; he evidently knew the world and his business. The seven hundred men quartered in the Tower attracted my attention. Fresh from Germany, where a high military standard is the admiration of the world, I watched these English troops with keen interest, and I must confess that, search all the world over, you could not see a finer body, corps d'elite—what splendid, tall, muscular and lithe frames! At a glance you can detect that they are devoted to their service. There is a great deal of axe and block about this gloomy Tower, but the foreigner invariably draws the conclusion that all this blood-letting has culminated in a great home of freedom and justice and a race where the high and the low are hanged: what a great consolation it would be if the same spirit of justice prevailed everywhere with regard to high and mighty offenders.

At a dinner given by Mr. Gellibrand and Mr. Price and his brother, I had occasion to inspect the City of London Club and appreciate the perfection with which club life is moulded to the different requirements of collectivities. The Club was founded 60 years ago by Masterman, the M. P. and banker, and the Duke of Wellington was one of the first members. The portraits of the founder and Iron Duke grace the walls. Comfort seems to reign in every hall, in every nook: Englishmen know the secret that continentals are still trying to learn.

Mr. Cecil H. Price, son-in law of ex-Lord Mayor Thomas White, favored me with a special invitation to the London Docks with a large party, including Count Cuadt, all under tasting orders 'for crusty old port'. These docks were built one hundred years before the Madero port, cover 30 squares of Buenos Ayres, cost 4,000,000£, can accommodate 300 sea-going vessels, and have warehouses for 200,000 tons of goods, and 9,000,000 gallons wine. The capital of the London Docks is 13,000,000£, and I have seen several thousand men at work in them. In one place I came across 300 tons of ivory. The immense shipping movement aroused my interest, and to grasp something of this wonderful power of England I visited the Navy Exhibition on its very last night. A large glass case, 10 yards long, five high, and five broad, contained a miniature group of the British fleet as distributed and stationed all over different quarters of the world—no fewer than 300 men-of-war! As I watched the ingenious collection, the band in the park struck up the familiar Rule Britannia, and the thousands on the ground joined in the patriotic strains. Englishmen may well feel proud of their naval power. They have inherited a naval patrimony since the days of Alfred the Great. In the days of Queen Mab England had 42 warvessels with 17,000 tons; to-day it has 300 or more with 800,000 tons and 70,000 men. The nation to-day owns 25,000 sailing vessels, 3000 steamers, a tonnage of 7,700,000 tons, and an army of 300,000 soldiers. All the other European countries together cannot match these figures.

My last days in London were bewildering in the hurry to see everything notable, and I had no time to compare notes, such as Westminster Abbey with the Buenos Ayres Cathedral, or the Old Lady of Threadneedle-street with the Banco de la Nacion. A farewell dinner was given to me by Mr. Ruecker-Jaenisch where I met Count Cuadt. Subsequently at the Embassy I met Geheimrath Hofrath Schmettan, an old friend at the Hannovarian court and intimate acquaintance of my late father. All took a great interest in the march of Argentine affairs, and the members of the German Embassy in particular who have a vivid recollection of General Roca and his visit here and in Berlin in the year 1888. The European diplomatic world knows Argentina well through Baron Holleben Baron Rotenhan and Mr. Ruecker-Jaenisch.

Before concluding, I must say something about British politeness. I remarked that gentlemen when meeting a lady in a hotel-lift not only took off their hats always, but remained standing in deference. The fact struck me forcibly as an apt illustration of what is meant by the word gentleman here: what we might style 'offizier' in Germany, the acme of social perfection. But in England, deference to woman is remarkable in all classes. A lady beckons to a constable when crossing the street; the policeman raises his gloved hand and traffic is stopped. Policemen are invariably polite. I cannot say as much of the continent, least of all of Paris; but what is astonishing is the incredible fact that both tram and railway guards are polite in England. I once lost my ticket in a train, I presented my card, and after a short explanation the affair was settled. On the continent I should have had to pay again, if not locked up according to strict railway regulations. Verily England is the home of gentlemen.

Emilio Schroeder.

Ed. Note. The docks above mentioned are only part of the docks of London, which cover altogether 690 acres or 170 'cuadras' of Buenos Ayres and cost £20,000,000 sterling.

LATEST FROM MONTEVIDEO

Wednesday Evening.

The Nacion publishes an article which is attributed to the President of the Republic, on the subject of the five million loan. It states that the operation is easily explained by the superabundance of money in Europe and the high interest offered here.

The representative of a syndicate of North American capitalists has proposep to the President of the Republic to supply the balance of three million dollars required to start the Bank, on condition that the syndicate be allowed to name two members of the Board.

The last performance of the Ferrari Company was given last night in the Solis. Ferrari has lost $20,000 this season.

It was reported to-day that Messrs. Girsch and Co., are the bankers who offered to float President Herrera's loan.

The Government have declared the ports of Havre and Hamburg infected, and closed this port against them. French and German ports have been declared suspicious.

Engineer Calcagno is at present endeavoring to float the Oceania, which foundered some time ago off Punta Brava.

THE LATE MR. DAVID FAHY.

Old camp residents will learn with profound regret that the above-named estimable Irishman died at his residence Estancia Los Pinos, Ayacucho, on Aug. 17th aged 59 years. He came to this country in the year 1847, being then a lad of 14; and spent some of his earlier years at the estancia Bella-Vista belonging to Don Martin Alzaga, from which he went afterwards to tho Caquel estancia, Monsalvo. By patient industry he was able to accumulate capital to start as a sheepfarmer, and accordingly rented the Estancia Esperanza, Rincon de Chaparro, near Dolores, where he resided many years. Ultimately he bought the Pinos estancia, Ayacucho, hoping to enjoy quietly the fruit of his labors, but his health soon began to give way. Some six months ago he went to Alta Gracia, and derived such benefit there that when he came back he felt quite recovered, but it was only for a time. His funeral took place on the 18th inst, and was attended by numbers of friends, who sympathize with his widow and children in their sad bereavement.

SUGAR AND ALFA.

Dear STANDARD:

In an article on "Cane sugar in the Argentine Republic" by H. St. John Wileman, which I read in the STANDARD seven or eight years ago, he says. "The annual yield of cane, exclusive of the first year's growth is 25 tons per acre," or, say 100 tons per square. Is that an exaggeration?

I also see in the STANDARD of 2 March 1886, an account of Messrs. Funes alfalfares at Rio Cuarto, and that they had commenced a new system of cutting, drying, and baling the alfalfa. The bales averaged four quintals, and everything was done by machinery, and superintended by his working partner, Mr. Peacock.

Could any of your readers tell me the result of this business, and if it is still worked?

I would like to know what weight of dry alfalfa can be taken off a square of land in Buenos Ayres the first year after being broken, and the three following years, and how many tons of green alfalfa are required to make one ton of dry alfalfa.

You, or some of your subscribers can answer the above questions.

H. B.

Ed. Note. — The ordinary crop of sugar-cane is 20 tons per acre, which yield about one ton of raw sugar. We have heard that Alfa (improperly Alfalfa) gives 4 cuttings yearly of 3 tons per acre: in England 3 tons of grass give one of hay. We suppose it is the same here.

ARGENTINE WOOL.

Mr. Carlos Lix-Klett has written an interesting article on the above subject in the columns of an Argentine contemporary: we extract as follows:—

The Argentine Republic at the last international Exhibition in Paris, achieved a great triumph for its wools. Out of a total of 236 prizes awarded to all countries, the Argentine Republic carried off 102 prizes. This circumstance shews what progress we have made, and how we have succeeded in improving the quality of our wools. Since that Exhibition took place the quality of the wool has continued to improve, and the wools of the Province of Buenos Ayres today are much superior to those forwarded to Paris in 1889. The percentage of yield has considerably increased. As a rule the Rambouillet wools and the wools from the South give very high yields, from 37 to 44 per cent., western wools 36 to 42 per cent., and northern wools from 34 to 40 per cent. The Lincoln and Rambouillet crosses in the South have done so well that the yield is from 45 to 68 per cent, and even a yield of 70 per cent has been recorded. The Province of Buenos Ayres produces the best wools in the country.

It is calculated that the Republic possesses 80 millions sheep The Rambouillet cross predominates everywhere The great bulk of our wool goes to France, Belgium and Germany, a small percentage going to Italy, United Kingdom and United States. Exports direct to the manufacturing districts are beginning to increase. The exports of wool were as follow:

1888.....	304,000,000
1892	360,000,000

In the year 1879, we began exporting wool direct to Dunkerque, and an idea of how this trade has grown may be gathered from the following table of exports:

Year.	Bales.
1879.....	7,341
1880.....	1,617
1881.....	27,544
1882.....	58,046
1883.....	104,080
1884.....	138,866
1885.....	138,032
1886.....	118,629
1887.....	128,517
1888.....	160,000

It is calculated that this year no less than 180,000 bales have been sent direct to Dunkerque.

The export of unwashed wool in 1891 was as follows:—

	Lbs.
Germany.....	63,000,000
Belgium.....	76,000,000
Spain.....	391,000
United States.....	13,500,000
France.....	133,000,000
Italy.....	4,500,000
Great Britain..	2,250,000
Uruguay.....	13,500,000
Total.....	306,141,000

The export of sheepskins was as follows:—

CONGRESS.

THE DEPUTIES.

The House met at 2.45, Dr. Gilbert in the chair. Several Committee reports were read.

Another supplementary credit for the War Office was asked for.

Several vine-growers in Catamarca petitioned for a reduction of the tax on Argentine wines.

A subsidy for the completion of the church at Rojas was asked for.

A vote was taken as to the member of the House that should take the place of the President of the Republic in case of "acefalia" and Dr. Gilbert was elected by 55 votes against one for General Godoy.

Ten thousand dollars were voted for an Asylum for girls in Catamarca.

Deputy Olmeda presented a Bill in reference to the imprisonment of Dr. Molina and the privileges of members; but as nobody seconded it, the House went into secret sitting and rose at 3.30 p.m.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Tha time-honoured "Santa Rosa" passed off nicely, and Eolus refrained from opening his bags in her honour: but he may yet do so, a week hence

This will be a great day in the political world, as the election of Vice President of the Upper House will come off at to-day's sitting. The general impression is that General Roca will win by a small majority.

The National Theatre was crammed to the ceiling on Tuesday night to hear "La Favorita" with Oxilia, the Banda Oriental tenor, as Fernando. His chronic throat affection, however, played him false. He should not have attempted a role that only the best of tenors can tackle, though the music in itself is not so difficult. Leonora, Madame Steimbach, was good; but King Alfonzo, Laban, was best, and the exquisite "A tanto amor" was well sung, although the acting was quite too cold. The opera will be repeated to-night.

There will be quite a fashionable wedding at the Scotch Church this morning when Mr. O'Connell of Venado Tuerto and Miss Runciman will enter the married state. There will be a musical service. The hour is 10.30. We desire to offer our warmest congratulations to the happy couple, wishing them a life-long honeymoon.

Yesterday we breakfasted on Artistic Beefsteaks, at Burgos's corner in Calle Florida. We thought of the Prince of Wales, the Duke of Westminster, the Countess of Orkney, and the Grand Old Man, and we wish them all as good a breakfast on Christmas Day.

We received the following "billet doux" yesterday from that gallant craft the U. S. s. Essex:—"The tea-meeting at the Y.M.C.A., Calle Cangallo on Tuesday evening last was a source of great enjoyment and will long be remembered by those of us from the U.S. s "Essex," who had the pleasure of attending; and we tender our thanks and appreciation to the committee, the ladies who sang, the readings by Mr. Torre, and the address by the Chairman."

We call attention to an advertizement in another column for a Manager for the well-known Cochico Estancia of Messrs. Lahusen and Co. This is a good opportunity for a competent and experienced man.

We deeply sympathize with Mr Daniel Mackinlay and family on the tragic death of his little daughter Adela, 7 years old. The child was running across the Avenida Alvear, to her aunt's residence in front of her father's house, when a passing carriage knocked her down, the wheels went over her body, and she died six hours later. Is nothing ever to be done to stop the furious driving that has become the rule in this city?

Mrs. Cuadros, who lives at No. 532 Calle Alsina, finds herself "mal cuadrada" just at present. Her father died in Europe some months since, leaving her a fortune of $15,000 gold, and she was goose enough to give a Mr. Joe Andreu power of attorney to go to the Old World to collect the money for her. When he came back he gave her $4,000 gold as all he had received; but she found out the trick, and Joe is now under lock and key in the Policia.

The Cholera Fiend looks as if he means to book for the River Plate, calling at Brazilian ports. There were four cases at Liverpool yesterday.

The following are the principal prizes of the Loteria Agentes de la Capital, drawn yesterday: 14326, 10,000; 4102, 5230, 200, 1578, 11948, 4482, 2563, 12100, 9239, 4312, 11864, 100 each.

Mr. William M. Ivins, President of the New York and Brazil line of steamers, who is now in this city to organize a direct line from here to New York, has offered to carry all goods for the Chicago Exhibition free of charge.

The "New England Magazine" for August has a descriptive article and many views of this city most admirably done. The lily is somewhat painted in the case of the Madero Docks, but all the other sketches are perfect.

The weather was fine in London on Tuesday and yesterday: the latest weather telegram came in 8 minutes. This is getting near no time, cousidering the distance.

Mr. Hudson of the American Church lectures to night to a Salvatiou Army audience at the Boca Hall; and Mr. Morris to-morrow night.

For once! The Health Boards of B.O. and Argentina have been frightened into partnership and common sense by the pranks of the visitor from the Ganges in Europe. The Lord Mayor is also on sanitary thoughts intent, and has dashed off a message to the City Fathers on the important subject.

The closing day of the kermesse in Durand's saloons (Tuesday) beat even the British Hospital Bazaar. So tremendous was the crush to get in that at 10 p.m. "the cry was still, they come" and the expedient of raising the "entrada" to five dollars had to be resorted to, but it had not much effect. The best fun of the night was the squeeze and scramble amongst the ladies at the close, to get their "tapados" in the cloak room. The confusion, tittering, pushing and laughing were such that the situation was only saved by a member of the Committee jumping on a table and holding up the wraps one by one for the lovely owners to identify. The total receipts were only $40,000, which is two and a half lengths behind the British Hospital Bazaar.

In reference to the mysterious five million loan in Montevideo, sanctioned in a hand-gallop by both Chambers, the M. V. T. says:—"Although the cat is not yet out of the bag the Nacion let a hair of its tail be seen yesterday by a covert allusion to the effect that Art. 8 contains the key to the mystery. We are still of opinion that many of the legislators are in possession of information respecting this loan which is being withheld from the public, and this opinion is strengthened by hints let drop in the Senate on Friday with respect to the benefits to be enjoyed by the foreign bondholders, whose consent—or the consent of a portion of whom—to Art. 8, seems to be assumed beforehand. Perhaps some negotiations to this effect have already been carried on privately. It is quite possible that the Council of Foreign Bondholders and the Baring group may not be foreign to the negotiation, and that they see in it a means of redeeming the failure of the conversion scheme and of recovering the prestige they lost over that unhappy business."

"Palet is playing in hard luck," said one artist to another. "How?" "He painted a picture of the grate in his room, and got it so natural and life-like that a new servant he had threw a scuttle full of coal through it and ruined it."

We received notice yesterday of a most interesting debate to be held by the Scotch Church Young Men's Society, the subject being one that is certain to draw a big crowd, viz "Is France or Germany the greater nation?" Unfortunately, the writer of the notice sent to us forgot to mention the date of the treat, so we cannot say whether it is to-night, to-morrow night, or the night after; but we intend to be there each night at 8 o'clock, until we hit on it.

Customer – In this one of your "special sale" days? Dry Goods Clerk—Yes, ma'am. This is umbrella day. "I thought it was umbrella day yesterday." "Yes, ma'am. It's been umbrella day right along for about four months ma'am."

There seems to be something in the mere act of telegraphing news to abroad that leads to exaggeration. We note it in a mild form in most of the telegrams that come from Europe; and, in this exhilarating and what-the-d-l-does-it-matter country the defect is, of course, greater. On Sunday, in Montevideo, our dear friends there were in a state of tremor, owing to the bulletins that were circulated there on Sunday evening that serious riots of a revolutionary character had taken place in Buenos Ayres, on the occasion of the manifestation in favour of the President elect. The little "diversion" of the young Radical element assumed the dimensions of a Three Black Crows story while being flashed through the muddy waters of the Plate.

Lottery news from Montevideo. The grand prize for the next drawing of the Caridad Lottery, to-morrow, is reduced to $10,000, whilst the number of tickets is increased to 14,000 and their price to $2.50 the whole or 50 cents the fifth. The lottery Committee think thus to secure a large sale. It was peculiar that in the lottery played last Saturday five of the 14 large prizes should have fallen amongst the eight thousands, close together.

M. Rouvier, who has been ballooning for the last year and a half over Lake Ibera in Corrientes without discovering anything in particular, in his last ascension saw a lat of zebras, the first met with in this country: he also discovered a new floating island of great size, covered with enormous trees, moving slowly over the bosom of the lake.

Mrs. Bloobumper (looking up from the newspaper)—George, dear what is the labor problem? Bloobumper—How to get more wages for less work.

Lobsters are such pugnacious crustraceans that they cannot be made to grow up together peaceably. If a dozen newly hatched specimens are put together into an aquarium, within a few days there will be only one—a large, fat, and promising youngster. He has eaten all the rest.

The Panama Star and Herald refers as follows to the reception of the United States Minister in Ecuador:—"As will be seen, a good deal of gush and hifalutin attended the reception in Ecuador of the first Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary with which the United States has distinguished that Republic. ON 'CHANGE.

Wednesday, August 31st 1892.

This being the close of the month there was a large business to be transacted. The hall was crowded at an early hour and at the ring there was hardly standing room. All the Bolsa seem now to be bears in gold and bulls in stocks; and very large sales of gold for September, October and November are done on and off the Bolsa at from 10 to 25 cents cheaper than cash.

The liquidation passed off most quietly; only a few cents differences; no failures and no losses as regards the gold market; but in the Empresitio 1892 market some large sellers on time had to deliver bonds at 5 points lower than the market rate.

There was only one ring to-day, it being the end of the month.

The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks and shares at the ring to-day:—

Captain Mitchell, commander of the Heraclides, was welcomed on Change. Owing to the low tide he had to remain in the roads for a day, but yesterday he entered Dock. The Heraclides is a very fine vessel and has capital accommodation for first and second class passengers, and Captain Mitchell is one of the most popular commanders trading with the Plate.

Exchange rules firm and upwards; first class bills offering and brokers of opinion that before Saturday rates will be higher; bills passed to-day at 47¼ on London.

Respecting Dr. Plaza being our new Minister of Hacienda there is much doubt, owing to the statements and counter statements of the Diario; but several of his intimate friends here state that he has accepted the post.

The chief business in cheques and bonos is in the Mortgage Bank bonos, which are in strong demand at 20.15. Provincial Bank cheques at 37 and National Bank at 21.

Money was in active demand to-day, owing to the close of the month's business at the Bolsa, and all the private banks were full of customers; business seems decidedly coming round, and we learn from one of our best escribanos, that business in real estate, which for the last year was so dormant, is now springing up, and all the real estate escribanos are very busy.

Circulars from Messrs. Norton & Co. of New York, announcing the formation of the Norton line of steamers were received to-day The steamers run from New-York to Montevideo, Buenos Aires, Rosario and other Parana river ports. This is a grand move in the right direction. We hold the circular for publication to-morrow.

The R.M.S. Thames took £45,000 in gold to Rio.

The Mercado Central de Uruguay Company of Montevideo has been declared bankrupt. It was a small new concern, and does not affect this market.

The excellence of the meat from Mr. Casey's market and the admirable arrangements for killing the animals, etc., are attracting attention. Much of the quality of the meat depends on these details. Many of the city doctors attribute much of the sickness in town to tired meat that comes from the Corrales, and we heard it to-day that two of the city hospitals are now to be supplied by Mr. Casey. All the families in town are now getting the English beef from Mr. Casey's market.

The province of San Luis is at last coming to the front in agricultural industry. Since the discovery of the River Plate it has been one of the most backward of all our provinces, but we note since the formation of the large Dutch estancia company by Mr. Paats some few years ago, that the province begins to show a certain vitality that is bringing it fast up to the front as an agricultural province. Mr. Luis Rogers, who we suppose is an Irishman or of Irish descent, notifies the Postmaster General of the industry going on in eight departments of the province. The information is all the more important since it is semi-official. In the department of the capital there have been no frosts this winter and very little rain, the cattle are in good condition, no locusts and 2,770 hectares under barley and vegetables. In Pedernera there are 5,845 hectares under alfalfa, vines and quintas; 457 hectares under wheat and 1,700 under barley, constant rains and cattle fat. In Junin there are 4,280 hectares under alfalfa, 350 barley, 660 wheat, 390 vines and 550 under quintas. Not much rain during the winter. In Ayacucho there are 700 hectares under alfalfa, 805 wheat, 220 barley, 920 vines, 310 quintas and 1,300 under orange and lemon trees. Good rains, cattle in good condition, but the 'peste' still continues, but has not caused much loss. San Martin, 1,300 hectares alfalfa, 290 barley, 899 wheat, 610 vines and 450 under quintas. Very little rain, cattle average. Belgrano, 1,880 hectares alfalfa, 1,707 wheat, 500 barley, 590 vines and 210 under quintas. Pasturage good although no rain. Chac mills. Some of the largest estancias in the Republic are in this province, which is susceptible of a very great development, and when the railway line runs through the open camps of San Luis from Bahia Blanca to Mercedes, which must be in a few years, we may find another province of Santa-Fe in the province San Luis.

Messrs. Lewis Evans, F. Hormann, G. Juister. Thomas Reddy, H. Levy, A. E. Ponsati and V Perutz have solicited to be admitted members of the Bolsa.

Mr. Eugene Richard, manager of the Caja de Descuentos, was robbed of a diamond pin on Sunday last during the hubbub of the political demonstration.

The great law suit going on for so many years about the estancias La Argentina and Toldos Viejos in the partido of Saladillo, 20 leagues of camp, some of the most valuable property in the country, has just been decided. Mr. Bedoya, the father of the plaintiff, who was a rich Paraguayan, bought the estancias in 1872 for 12½ millions of the old paper money. The plainiff, Mrs. Bedoya del Campo, asserted that the sale to Felipe Recalde and Dr. Torrent was null and void, she being a minor at the time. The federal judge has decided that the sale was good and valid, condemning the plainiff in costs and to perpetual silence.

The judge has ordered a meeting of the creditors of Clark and Co. to be held on the 11th of October next, when all claims of creditors must be presented.

On Sunday the 11th of September all the property, machines and so forth of the unfortunate company called the Cooperativa de Panaderia will be sold by auction by order of the court. The total valuation of the concern is $80,000, the ⅜ of which, 53,333 is the basis of the sale. This company was started but a couple of years ago and with the very best prospects; as all the panaderos in town are making money, it was thought that a joint stock panaderia would pay much more, but the shareholders have found out their mistake and, like most of the cooperative companies, it has come down by the run.

Telegrams have been received from Europe by the agent of the German house Luther and Co., advising the La Plata Government that as the conditions of the contract have been accepted by the Government, all the machines and hydraulic lifts for the port of La Plata have been shipped from Antwerp and may be expected here in a few weeks. These hydraulic lifts will be of immense use in the La Plata port, which is now lighted up with the electric light; Mr. Maschwitz, the chief of the Department of Engineers, and other distinguished residents of La Plata having a few nights ago assisted at the inauguration of the electric light in the port, whose trade is so steadily increasing that in a few years they will require more deposits.

Advices from the country town of Carmen de Areco report the works of the Tramway Rural going ahead fast; the rails are now within a few leagues of the town, and by the end of the year the tramway will be open to public traffic. There have been numerous robberies of sheep and cattle in the partido, and Mr. Fox, the active commissary, has tracked the robbers and found them out. There is a great row going on in the town between the Intendente and the Secretary of the Municipality about a deficit of 6,000 dollars. The sheep farmers of the district are all making fortunes and land has become so valuable that there is not half a league to be got in the whole partido, which is so covered with foreign estancias and sheep farms that instead of being called Carmen de Areco it might be called the County Kerry, or Kildare. The finest wool in the province comes from this partido, and there are many of our readers who still remember when the Irishmen from the South came up and settled there, buying their lands through the agency of the lamented Father Fahy, at the rate of fifty thousand of the then paper dollars per league. These lands to-day are considered cheap at $200,000 the league and have remained in the families of the early Irish purchasers.

The monthly balance sheet of the Caja de Conversion is again published and it is beyond question the largest balance sheet of any public institution in this or any other country. Mr. Heurtley the accountant must be the hardest worked man in town. We gather from the paper that the total note circulation of the Republic is 265, 243, 933, and this is perhaps the most important figure of the whole balance sheet. We note that the Government received 45,880,038 gold from the free banks, and that the aja holds bills for 4,840,446 gold overdue, and for 4,881,428 still maturing, which were given Government in lieu of gold as guarantee for emissions. These bills we suppose will never be paid. The Caja drew from the Banco de la Nacion 5,413,574 to pay to the subscribers for the new bank for the empresitito bonds deposited. To judge by this balance sheet there must be a very heavy staff of clerks and an immense business going on in the Caja de Conversion.

At the close of last week we had occasion to remark that according to reliable authority from Rosario, there is yet a balance of 200,000 tons of cereals to come forward for export. Some parties took exception to our estimate and considered it rather high, but we find in yesterday's Nacion a list of the balance of exports to be shipped before the new season's produce comes in, and we find it to corroborate our wool and cereals figures. We think that the full list published by the Nacion is exaggerated, since it takes in saladero produce which must belong to the new season; but the following items seem to us as about the mark:—

	Tons.	$gold.
Wheat.....	80,000 at 30 $	2,400,000
Maize.....	120,000 at 20 $	2,400,000
Linseed....	15,000 at 40 $	600,000
Oats, potatoes, etc..	—	200,000
Hay.....	—	1,800,000
Flour.....	6,000 at 50 $	300,000
Bran.....	5,000 at 12 $	60,000
Seed.....	—	170,000
Wool....	—	1,000,000
Sheepskins..	—	5,000,000
Saladero Produce...	—	3,000,000
Hides.....	—	1,280,000

There may be many items to add to this list, such as cargoes of frozen mutton, potro hides, live stock, horse hair, quebracho, minerals, etc. And we think we are safe in our estimate, that the balance of exports to be shipped from now till November represents a value of Twenty millions sterling, and bankers and merchants can base their exchange operations on this estimate, which is rather under than over the mark. This is the first time on record we ever had at this time of the year such a large stock of exportable produce on hand.

The special train to the La Plata Dock to bid farewell to the passengers by the R.M.S. Thames was crowded to-day. Among the passengers was Mr Allan, who holds the contract for the warehouses of the La Plata port; a great crowd went to bid him farewell on the deck of the noble steamer Mr. Allan, we hear, intends prolonging his stay at home and will not return perhaps for years. Amongst the party on board the Thames were Deputies and Senators of the La Plata Legislature. The special train was well up to time, and we congratulate the La Plata Manager, Mr. Ensenada Brown, on the splendid condition of the permanent way; the motion of the train is very smooth and easy. The Ensenada Railway company have now completed their circuit of the La Plata docks, and their trains can now run along both sides without intruding upon the lines of other companies. The company, to achieve this, have built a bridge over the canal that runs to the La Plata Port.

The sale of 100 picked half-bred animals from the Cochico Estancia, the splendid estate of Mr C L Lahusen in Guamini, attracted much attention at the Corrales yesterday. The animals fetched $40 a head "carne y sebo," which is equivalent to $55 per head. We understand that this is the first batch of a herd of 1,500 animals which Mr. Lahusen intends sending to the Corrales. In connection with this sale, we may say a few words about the Cochico estancia. The herds number 15,000 animals of Hereford and Polled Angus breeds. There are, moreover, 70,000 Lincoln and Shropshire sheep on this magnificent estate, which covers 18½ square leagues of prime camp. Notwithstanding the distance of the estancia from B. Ayres —120 leagues—the animals sold yesterday were in excellent condition. Our German correspondent promises a full description of this estancia, and we hope to be able to publish it in a few days.

The Banco de la Nacion published this morning the numbers of the bonds of the 1891 loan drawn for the monthly amortization. The amount of bonds to be amortized is 1,000,000 nats. and as the price of the bonds in the open market is 3 points lower than that paid by the bank, it is always a gain for the market. As the Banco Nacion, however, has to withdraw from the market 1,000,000 of these bonds every month, clear it is that soon the market price will be on a parity if not above that paid by the bank; the holders of these bonds seem to have known well what they were doing when they bought them; since aside from this amortization by the Banco de la Nacion every month the National Credit Department has to amortize every quarter and by tender until the price reaches par, when they will be amortized by drawings. As soon as the market price of these bonds passes 75 the Banco de la Nacion will have to stop its amortization, since holders who will have a right to ask par from the Government will certainly not accept 75 from the bank.

To-morrow the Buenos Ayres and Rosario railway company, one of the grandest enterprises in the River Plate, makes another step forward and turns its trains through from the Central Station by its new branch at Santo Tome into the city of Santa Fe. You can leave this city after dinner and breakfast the next morning in Santa Fe. There is no longer any changing of coaches from wide to narrow gauge, the same carriage takes you the whole way through. This great trunk railway merits the very best success; to-day its shares are selling at 30% discount, but as the crisis is now over and the trade of the country improving we hope very soon to see them at 50% premium, and to welcome on 'Change our London friends Messrs Todd and Davidson.

Mr. Dodds who has so many friends in the River Plate, has arrived out from England on a special mission. He was in former years traffic manager of the Colonial railways in Santa Fe until they passed into French hands, and we doubt very much if these railways gained by the exchange.

What this means few know, but those troubled with indigestion may realise in part by use of True China Tea for one week.

PHOSPHATIC
BAKING POWDER

BARON LIEBIG, the world-renowned chemist said, "I have though a great series of experiments, satisfied myself of the purity and excellence of your preparation The bread has no acid, is easily digested, and of the best taste. Aside from the conveniences this invaluable idea or yours has provided, I consider this invention as one of the most useful gifts which science has made to mankind! It is certain that the nutritive value of the flour will be increased 10 per cent by your invention, and the result is precisely the same as if the fertility of our wheatfields had been increased by that amount.

What a wonderful result is this!"

EXTRACT
TOBACCO.
According to numerous testimonials which we hold the extract of pure tobacco is the only infallible remedy to radically cure the scab in sheep and naturally the cheapest. As there are several trade marks like ours care must be taken to see that the extract bears the key marks, without which it is not genuine.
Directions for use
One part of extract mixed with 100 to 150 parts of hot or cold water for bath, and with 80 to 100 parts for hand curing.
